District Website Has New Look, Lots More Information

If you visit today's CNEDD website at www.cnedd.org, you will find a new look and a lot more information for a variety of economic development opportunities for Central Nebraskans.

The Central Nebraska Economic Development District is committed to providing resources and assistance in enhancing the economic success of our Central Nebraska counties and communities.

Visit the website today to access new information that we are making available to the Central Nebraska region:

Business & Industry/Workforce – Looking for business loans? You'll find links and contact information for business loan opportunities. Needing assistance in starting a business? Check out our business planning and section. Have a vacant position you'd like to fill in your business? We provide links to job posting sites which include Nebraska colleges and universities.

Community/County Economic Development – Does your community need to make improvements to infrastructure or public works? Are there community improvement projects or community building needs in your town? Need assistance in planning for those projects, writing grant applications and managing state and federal grants? Check out the available resources, plus the services that CNEDD provides.

Housing – Does your town need to enhance or improve housing that helps you recruit individuals and families to your community? Are you interested in purchasing a home or repairing an existing home? If our housing page does not provide you with the answers you need, you can always give us a call.

Disaster Recovery – Learn about the District's Disaster Recovery and Resiliency Plan, and how we can be a partner in assisting communities recover from a disaster.

The CNEDD website is a work in progress, and not all sections are complete. We invite you to visit our site often to receive the latest information.
