Disaster 101 Workshop Report

Nearly 80 people from across our region participated in the CNEDD-sponsored Disaster 101 Workshop on February 24th in Atkinson, Nebraska.

Speakers for the workshop included State of Nebraska Emergency Management Agency representatives, as well as our local Emergency Managers.

Topics addressed during the workshop included:

Legal Authorities/Issues
Planning and Incident Command Process
Long Term Recovery Process
South Sioux City Flood Story

Who Can Do What
Public Assistance Programs
Wayne Tornado Story

Participants learned the most from the following presentations:

- ◆ All of the pre-planning that our village needs to do before a disaster
- ◆ Planning and Incident Command process
- ◆ Awareness of disaster and resources available - very informative
- ◆ Where to go for resources to help further our disaster plan
- ◆ It was all good information that fits together - lots of things to think about

Interest was expressed in participating in future disaster workshops that covered the following topics:

- ◆ Disaster Planning for my community
- ◆ Debris Management

- ◆ Mutual Aid Agreements
- ◆ Volunteer Resources Management
- ◆ Setting up a Resource Management Team

CNEDD will work with the Emergency Managers in our region to plan for future disaster workshops
