Register Today for the CNEDD Annual Conference

"Small Towns – Are You Open For Business?"

It's that time of year again where we bring in economic development and community experts to share their expertise and guidance in ways to improve life in our rural Nebraska communities. You are invited to attend our upcoming annual conference.

When: March 30, 2017

Where: O'Neill Community Center

Who Should Attend: Elected Officials, Chambers of Commerce, Investment Groups, Lenders, Development Boards, City and County Clerks, Active Citizens

During this year's conference you will learn about:

- Small Town Success Stories
- Becoming a Certified Leadership Community One Step At a Time
- Marketing Our Communities to Millennials and Youth
- Creating a Local Investment Group For Your Community's Future
- What Businesses Need To Succeed
- Educating a Skilled Workforce

Cost is $25/person which includes lunch and handouts. You will find a conference registration form on our website at: <http://cnedd.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/02/2017-Annual-Conference-Brochure.pdf> You may also call CNEDD at 402-340-0106 for registration information.

The Central Nebraska Economic Development District (CNEDD) is a 14-county regional development organization that encourages cooperation between local government officials, community-based organizations, and the private sector. The District provides the link between federal and state programs, and the local level where development actually occurs. To learn more, visit our website at www.cnedd.org
